Hey Cajammer's,

What would our community look like if the problems we faced were resolved?

We ask this question each year in house meetings across our city. For ten years we have envisioned a Charleston area that is more Just than before.

2 years ago the world paused. That pause allowed us all to take an intentional look at the problems in our community. The last two years have been a challenge, yes, but they have left us with more opportunities, more chances for growth, more space to create.

Former President Barack Obama's words ring loud in this season of new and possibility.

"Change will not come if we wait for some other person or some other time. We are the ones we've been waiting for. We are the change that we seek."- Barack Obama Cajammer's the time is now for our officials to DO RIGHT in our city. We are the folks who are needed, primed, and in a position to ensure that change happens. Urgently make your way to the CAJM Rally on March 14th at Mount Moriah MBC at 7:00 PM and bring others with you. Your fellow CAJM members are counting on your presence and your energy as we prepare for our Nehemiah Action on April 4th at 7:00 PM at District 4 Stadium in North Charleston.

Now is the time to DO RIGHT, for folks with housing insecurity!

Now is the time to DO RIGHT, for folks who lack access to healthcare!

Now is the time to DO RIGHT, for kids in schools that are unsafe!

Now is the time to DO RIGHT, for folks who live near Gadsden Creek!

It's Time To Register for the Rally and

Mightier Than the Sword:

WRITING INTO HISTORY

March 10, 2022
Park Circle Gallery

William H. Johnson, born Florence, SC 1901-died Central Islip, NY 1970, Let My People Free (detail), ca. 1945; oil on fiberboard (Bird-Fibre); 38 1/4 x 30 in. (97.1 x 76.2 cm); Gift of the Harmon Foundation; 1967.59.649

From Frederick Douglass and the abolitionists of the 19th century to James Baldwin, the power of the written word has always played a critical role in movements for social change. Inspired by the exhibition, Fighters for Freedom: William H. Johnson Picturing Justice, and in partnership with local, woman-owned bookstore Itinerant Literate, join us alongside Pastor Byron L. Benton and authors Cinelle Barnes and Isaac J. Bailey as we discuss the historical influence of written discourse on social justice movements.

Authors will be available to sign copies of their books, and Itinerant Literate will have a curated pop-up shop at the gallery to complement the conversation.

WHAT: Mightier Than the Sword: Writing into History

WHEN: Thursday, March 10, at 6 pm

WHERE: Park Circle Gallery, 4820 Jenkins Avenue

$20 Members | $30 Non-Members | $10 Students/Faculty with Valid ID

*A 3% credit card fee will apply

 Masks will be required while inside the event facility per guidelines for all city run facilities.
