

2016 CAJM Rally

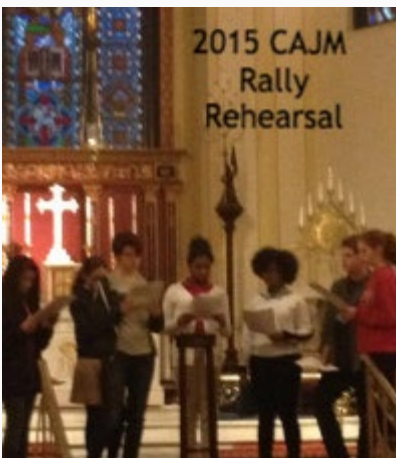

40 Days of Prayer in Preparation for the Nehemiah Action

O God, whose essence is love, you call us to a living relationship with you. Our relationship with you is made real, incarnate, by our relationships with our brothers and sisters. Pour out your loving spirit upon us that we might powerfully stand in solidarity with one another to call for justice -- a justice based on right relationships and fairness. Give us fortitude and courage to withstand the push-back and resistance of the powerful and those who fear to lose prestige, privilege and power. Remind us powerfully of your preferential stance among the poor and the powerless, with the widow and the orphan and with the alien and downtrodden. Give me, give us the grace to act powerfully as your agents in our time and in our place. Yours be the honor and the glory now and forever.
