

2016 CAJM Rally

40 Days of Prayer in Preparation for the Nehemiah Action

As CAJM has been focusing on tension – how we don't create it, but rather bring it to the surface; how tension isn't a product of advocacy, it's a product of injustice – this is the prayer to which I find myself returning again and again:

We oughtn't pray for what we've never known,
and humanity has never known:

unbroken peace,
unmixed blessing.

No.

Better to pray for pity,
for indignation,
discontent,
the will to see and touch,
the power to do good and make new.
